

If you're looking for a way to relax and have fun with friends, you should try pub trivia. It's social and fun even if you lose, but winning makes it even better.

Old Court/ Geezer/ umame story

I've picked up a few strategies that I want to share that'll help you have a great time.

Assemble a great team

good personalities and similar attitudes about competition

key content areas

scout your team

core team with "guest stars"

Game strategy

pay attention:

directions

points

score reading

be aggressive

halftime clues/points: answer early

final points/ deductions

go with your gut

don't drink too much

Have fun!!

playing, winning, losing with grace

drive safely

Conclusion: I have had a lot of fun playing pub trivia, and I definitely encourage you to try it. There are a couple of places to play here in Lowell. You don't have to know everything, and with just a few tips in mind, you can make a decent showing. It's cheap fun that can make you smarter!